All over the world these days we get stories of how the Shortages are making new crops wealthy people as producers of stuph ranging from oil to coffee and various kinds of minerals, etc., are getting higher and higher prices and while the folks behind some of the Shortages are hard to nail down there is no doubt some of the pure ragtag peoples are joining the 'oil' stock and country club sets.

The sudden affluence of some of the OPEC countries has been hushed and rehearsed and natives of some of those countries in the Arab bloc have reached the same heights of spendthriftiness which used to be familiar in this country when some poverty stricken farmer or rancher suddenly struck oil. Those of you who have been around long enough can recall how these newly rich people threw their hats in the air and headed for town to buy the latest and best and put their kids in sporty automobiles and in some cases the new wealth was held together and some family fortunes were established, but in the majority of (CONT. USDA Announces Rules, Dates For Beef Research, Information Referendum

Washington, May 18 — The U.S. Department of Agriculture today announced June 6 as the beginning of a two-week registration period for the Beef Research and Information Order Referendum and issued rules for the referendum.

Anyone who was a cattle producer during 1976 can register to vote, either in person or by mail, at local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Services (ASCS) offices between June 6 and June 17. A list of those who registered will be posted daily at ASCS offices and a final listing will be posted five days after registration closes.

Those registered can vote between July 5 and July 16 at their ASCS office. For approval of the beef research and information order, at least 60% of those registered must vote, and two-thirds of them must favor it.

The order that producers will consider in the upcoming referendum would authorize a research and information program administered by a beef board of up to 66 producers. Board members would be appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture from nominations submitted by producer organizations. Each state or geographic area would be represented in proportion to its cattle production.

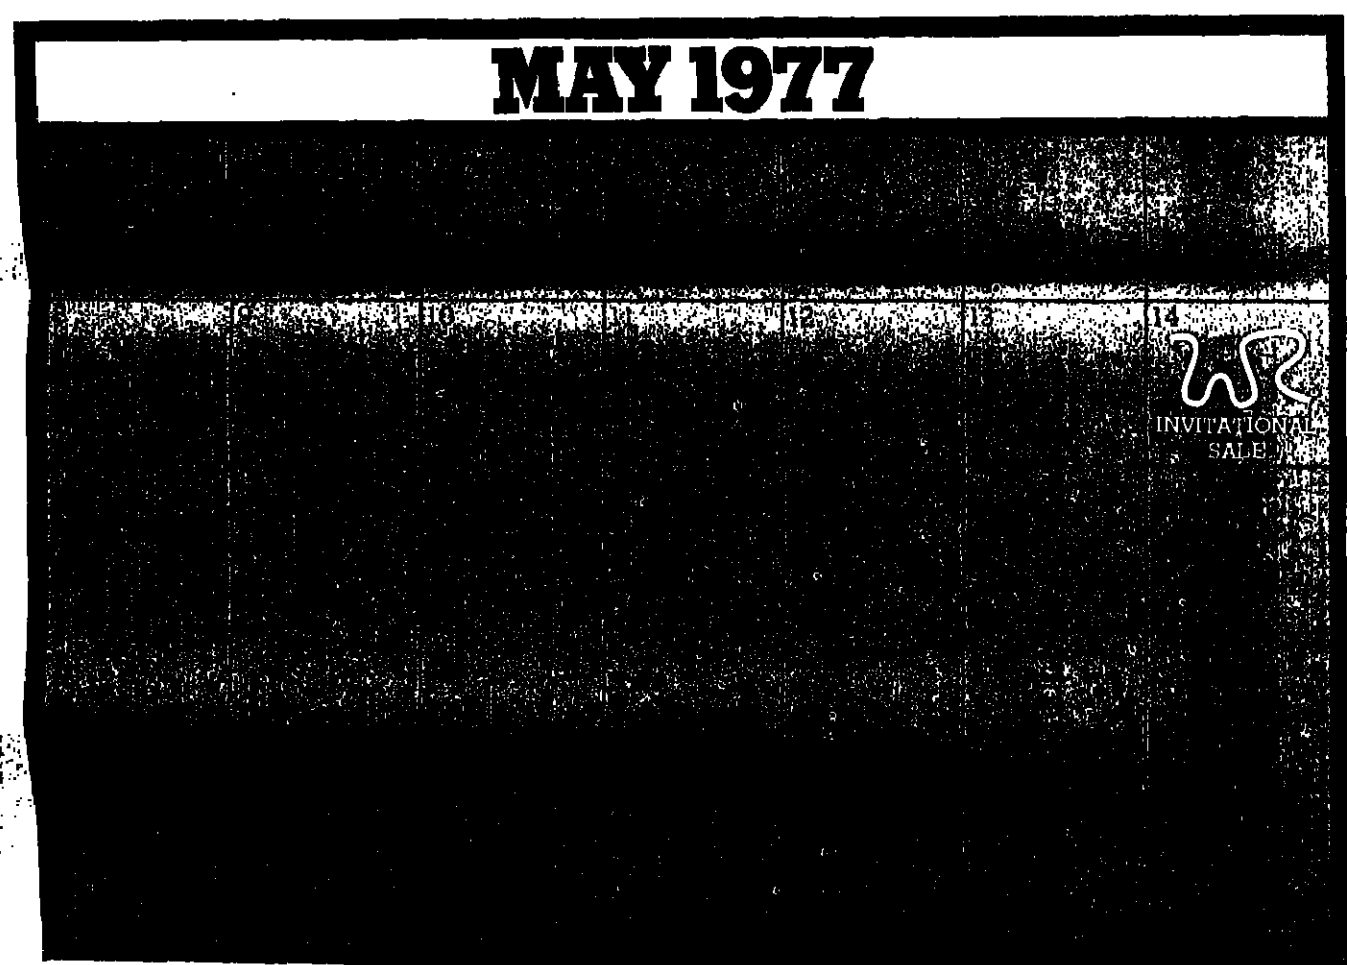

The Beef Board could initiate a broad spectrum of projects to improve beef production, distribution, and marketing. Such a program could include consumer education and information, and research.

During the first three years of operation, the Board could collect assessments of up to three-tenths of one percent of the value of all cattle sold. After that, the rate of assessment could be changed but could not exceed five-tenths of one percent — the maximum amount permitted to participate in the program could have their assessment refunded.

The rules for conducting the referendum were scheduled to be published in the May 17 Federal Register. Copies (CONT. ON PAGE 2A)

Texas Screwworm Cases Total 13

Mission, May 13 — Five laboratory identified samples from Hidalgo, Kinney, McMullen counties during the first half of May brought the 1977 Texas screwworm case count to 13, says Dr. James E. Noy. The veterinarian in charge of field operations says this compares to 1,837 cases by May 13 last year. He credits much of the improvement to close observation of livestock and speedy case reporting by ranchers.

Uvacek Sees Some Improvement In The Cattle Outlook

College Station—Some improvement in cattle prices this spring and summer appears not only possible but highly probable, says a livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Ed Uvacek points out that the improved outlook is a result of lower beef production, some decrease in pork output, and further increases in population and disposable income.

Replacement Cattle Sag, Follow Last Year's May Pattern

Kansas City, May 18 (USDA) — National Feeder Cattle and Calf Summary: Approximately 182,000 this week; 237,000 last week; 185,000 last year. Feeder cattle and calves sold steady to 3.00 lower around the nation. This is the second straight week of moderate to sharp price declines.

While some points trimmed both calves and yearlings the most and concentrated pressure was on fleshy yearling steers over 700 lbs. and heifers over 600 lbs., this in sympathy with the lower prices on finished cattle.

Last year the price movement paralleled this year with moderate to sharp price drops on feeder cattle during the first two weeks of May and last year the decline extended into the third week of May.

Grading is off to a good start but there still is concern about stock and pond water, particularly later in the season. Feed grains appear to be ample to abundant with much conversation about shifting more wheat to livestock feeding.

River Terminals: 29,000; Steers: Choice and including prime, thin and framey 400-700 lbs. 42.00-47.33; choice, 42.00-47.33.

compared with 12,000 in April last year. Movement out of feedlots to early pasture was heavier than usual for the month of April.
Estimates in this cattle on feed report are based on data provided voluntarily by cattle feeders. The Statistical Reporting Service maintains an up-to-date list of cattle feeders stratified by feedlot capacity. Data are collected by mail and by personal and telephone interviews on or about the 1st day of each survey period. Survey procedures are designed to obtain reports from all feeders in the larger size strata, and feeders in the small size strata are sampled. Of the total inventory of cattle on feed for this report 67 was actually reported in the survey.

State by state totals of cattle on feed and inbound feeders May 1 include:
Arizona reported 344,000 on feed

May 1, which was 84% of last year. Placements totaled 89,000, or 114% of a year earlier.
California had 697,000 cattle on feed, or 98% of a year earlier. Placements totaled 197,000, or 120% of a year ago.
Colorado reported 638,000 head on feed, 90% of last year. Placements of 238,000 head were 120% of a year earlier.
Iowa with 1,310,000 on feed, represented 94% of a year earlier.

Page 4A WEEKLY LIVESTOCK REPORTER May 19, 1977
Placements at 180,000 were only 78% of a year earlier. Only Iowa and Nebraska reported declines in cattle placed on feed in the May 1 report.
Kansas had 1,190,000 on feed, which was 99% of the figure a year earlier. Placements of 310,000 were 107% of last year.
Nebraska reported 1,380,000 on feed, which was 100% of last year to this date. Nebraska was the only state in the list of seven monthly reporting states to show an increase in numbers on feed. Placements at 800,000 were

Don Gamel's Broken Arrow Angus Heavily Endowed With Wye Breeding

Glen Rose, Texas—Don Gamel is a man of widely varied interests, but one of his most serious interests are his Angus cattle and the breeding program which has earned a wide reputation as a leading herd of the breed.

Gamel's Broken Arrow ranch covers 2,007 acres near Glen Rose and runs about 150 breeding cows and heifers. About 985 acres of the ranch have been cleared and re-seeded to native blue stem, side oats, Little bluestem and KB bluestem. About 400 acres of the ranch are surrounded by an 8 1/2 foot high fence inside of which is an exotic game preserve which provides a sideline income for the ranch from hunters who like having an African trophy in their den without the need for going to Africa.

Gamel's trophy room is about the first place every guest is taken to see mounted Fallow Deer, Mutton sheep, Audud Sheep, Saka Deer, Black buck antelope, Axis deer, white tail deer and red stag, all of which inhabit Gamel's preserve. The room also contains trophies of two Safaris to Africa in 1970 and 1973.

Broken Arrow ranch also has 140 acres of Coastal Bermuda which is used mainly in the summer to rest the other pastures.

Gamel started with Angus in 1964 when he purchased the ranch at Glen Rose with a commercial herd of 25 cows and a bull, and turned to registered Angus in 1966 when he heard an advertisement for a Mid-Texas Angus Assn. sale on a radio one morning, and went to it and purchased some cattle.

He then bought a son of Colossal, a grandson of Eva's Bardolier, and bought in partnership with Dr. L. G. Ballard, Granbury, Whitney Bardolier, Hermers 81st, a son of O. Bardolier.

Posing in front of their newly completed sale barn at the Broken Arrow Ranch, Glen Rose, are W. D. Youngblood, manager, left, who has been with the ranch 22 years, and Don Gamel, right, owner. "Youngblood is a pretty ingenious man who can do any job that needs to be done around a ranch," says Gamel.

house of Wye, a son of Lodge of Wye, and Olaf of Wye, a son of Fornson of Wye. Lodge and Fornson are considered to be two of the best sires of the Angus breed. To make maximum use of the two Wye bulls, Broken Arrow breeds for about 18 or 19 days beginning about Dec. 1 each year by artificial insemination, then turns the bulls in with the cows artificially exposed to him to let him do his own clean-up work.

In the last three years, Gamel has bought on a very selective basis, some outstanding cattle with a high concentration of Wye breeding by such bulls as Amon, Barnabas, Courage, Georgus of Bar, Bonanza, LaFayette and Forever of Wye.

Every calf born on the Broken Arrow is weighed at weaning, and the bulls now average more than 600 pounds and heifers around 500 pounds at weaning. A little more when weaned. A progeny record is kept on each cow. Heifers are not bred until 18 months old, and are bred during the first three months of the year.

Breeding for fall calves has made Broken Arrow Ranch a popular source of club heifer prospects.

Even with a herd of top Angus and the side income of the exotic game preserve, Gamel says that today's prices ranching is still not a bad business.

NEWS

The Santa Circuit

BY BUDDY SMITH

There's an old saying, "Sometimes you can't see the forest for the trees." This seems to be the unconscious situation of many purebred breeders. We forget that our work and effort should be toward producing a better, more efficient, product for the commercial cattle industry. Jim Theobald, manager at Mayfair Ranch, Brenham, is an exception. Not only is Mayfair in the purebred Santa Gertrudis business, they also produce F1 Brador, Brangas, and Santa Gertrudis cross females. However, they go a step farther by running several hundred F1 females with performance tested Santa Gertrudis bulls of their own production.

Keith and Betty Cosgrove, Coalgate, Okla., and Joe Smith and Tucker Blair, commercial cattlemen from Walker County, joined me in attending Mayfair's Bluebonnet F1 Herd Sale. I wanted them to see first hand what a big red bull could do on a Brador cow. Mayfair is producing an outstanding three way cross calf. If you want to merchandise your purebred product, I suggest you visit Mayfair Ranch and see first hand how they're getting it done. Incidentally, Jimmy will have some of his F1 cows with Santa calves on display at the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis Association's Field Day, May 28, at Bob Spearman's Cedar Creek Ranch, Caldwell, Texas.

The S.G.B.I. Youth Endowment Fund is growing every day. Four G Ranch donated the proceeds from their Super Sale animal to the fund, and directors B. K. Johnson and Bill Blakemore just recently made sizeable contributions to the fund. We have a goal of $200,000, and if donations keep coming in, it won't take us long to reach it. Proceeds from the fund will go to pay premiums at the youth shows.

Several Santa Gertrudis sales are coming up shortly: the Premier Santa Gertrudis Sale is May 21, the Kansas Santa Gertrudis Sale is June 1, the Oklahoma Association Sale is June 4.

Western Heritage Sale Aug. 6 Features
Santa Gertrudis Cattle, Horses, Art

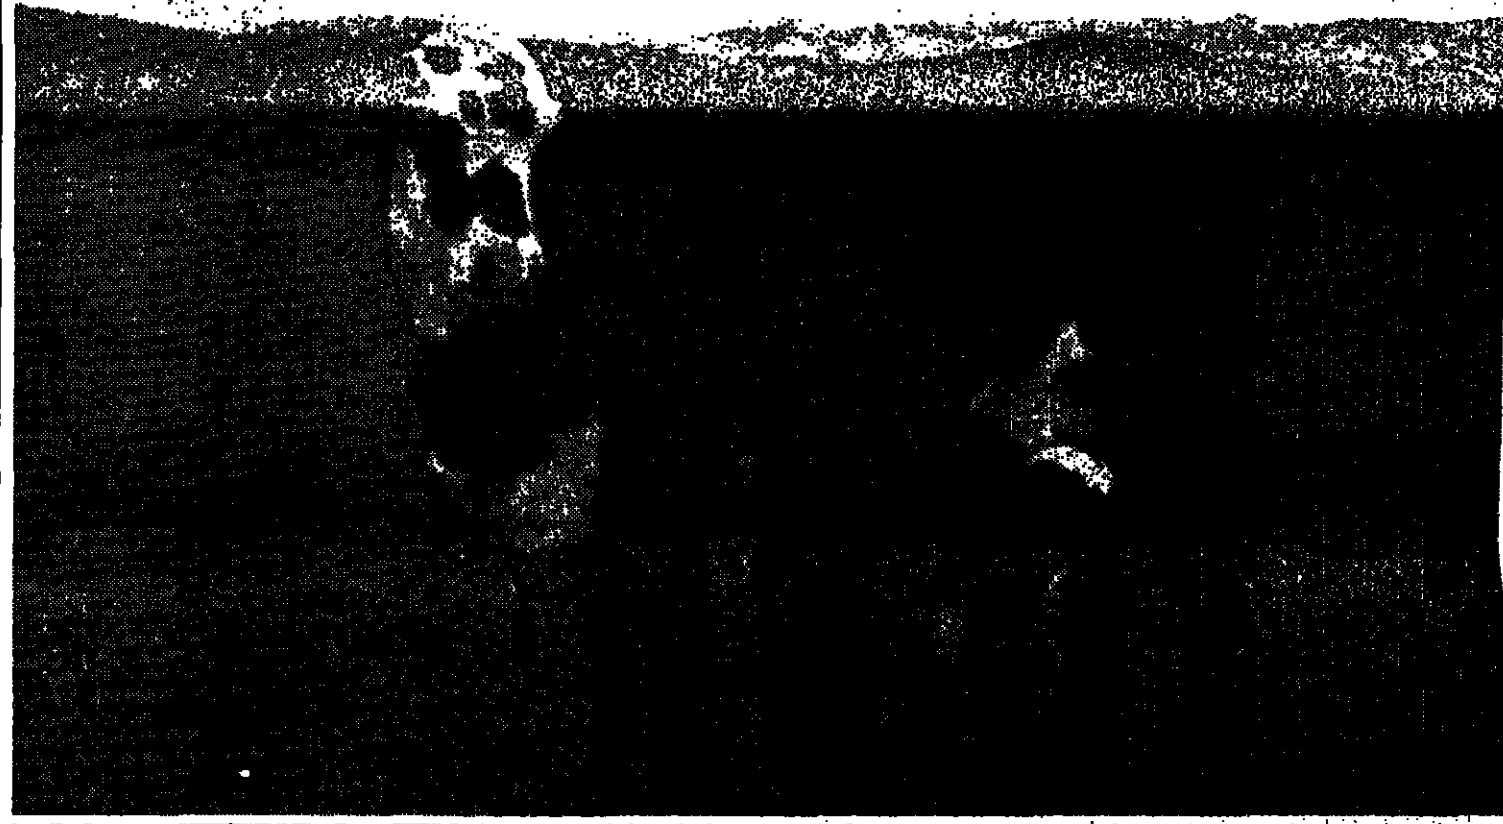

When the Santa Gertrudis 25th anniversary celebration was held last year with the famous "Bulls in the Ballroom" sale, no one would have thought the occasion could ever be topped. Everyone said, "Where else but Texas would you find cattle displayed along side fabulous works of Western art, all to be auctioned off at a black tie dinner inside the ballroom of a famous Dallas hotel?"

Guests from all over the United States, Central and South America, and South Africa had been invited. And they came—celebrities, distinguished citizens, breeders, ranchers, art connoisseurs and other notables—to enjoy the festivities and novelty of the event and to come away with some truly remarkable purchases. Former Texas Governor John Connally served as master of ceremonies of the affair, and the auctioneer was Gerald Bowles.

What more could there be to surpass this event? Well, another

What to expect from a double cross.

A Montana Rancher's first Santa Gertrudis — Hereford cross and her second cross calf.

One Montana Rancher is finding out. And he's doing it successfully by mating King Ranch Santa Gertrudis bulls to first and second cross Santa Gertrudis-Hereford females. Out of his first set of heifers, his steer calves weaned out at an average of 497 pounds. The heifers at 478 pounds. The mothers, then bred back 94% safe in calf. Not bad at all. As virgins they had 90% breeding percentage.

As an added bonus, the same rancher reports that each year his first cross calves have weaned heavier than straight Hereford calves from the same cows.

This rancher is not alone. From the mountains of Montana to the tropics of Florida, cattlemen are benefitting from the same kind of performance. Performance that springs from over 50 years of careful genetic engineering by the King Ranch. The people who created the breed.

For more information, contact the King Ranch or one of the nationwide properties nearest you.

You'll find there's a wide variety of King Ranch bulls on sale at private treaty. Most of them at prices that make it easy to pull off a near perfect double cross.

"Lucky" Bob Spearman Will Host Santa Gertrudis Field Day May 28

Caldwell, Texas — Bob Spearman's Cedar Creek Ranch, six and one-half miles north on Highway 21, then half a mile north on Farm Road 1932 on the left will be host to a Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis Field Day on Saturday, May 28.

It's a fitting setting for such an activity with its large barn, manicured lawns, and of course, a top set of Santa Gertrudis cattle to provide discussion and examples for speakers to use.

Some of those speakers will be Vernon Smith, Dallas, one of the owners of El Colina Ranches and president of Santa Gertrudis Breeders International; Tom Mayes of the Texas Soil Conservation Service; Bob Wurzbach, with Purina Feeds; Dr. John Beavler, extension specialist at Texas A&M University at nearby College Station; Jim Theek, manager of Mayfair Ranches at Brenham and president of the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis Assn. and others.

There will be a judging contest for both adults and juniors followed by a barbecue lunch during which winners of the judging contests will be awarded plaques.

Spearman says this field day is being directed toward commercial cattlemen, and that more than 200 persons have already indicated interest in attending.

For commercial cattlemen, Theek's talk will hold particular interest because he manages one of the larger herds of registered Santa Gertrudis and an even much larger herd of commercial F-1 Brahman cross cattle to which Santa Gertrudis bulls are bred.

Theek will have some of the F-1's from Mayfair on display, and Allen Karuth, Bellville, will bring some commercial Santa Gertrudis and F-1 cows and Santa Gertrudis bulls for display and discussion at the field day. Karuth's cows will show what commercial Santa Gertrudis cows produce when mated to Hereford bulls.

We believe commercial cattlemen will be surprised at what they see as the result of crossbreeding, both ways, with Santa Gertrudis," said Spearman.

This scene will greet guests to the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis Field Day at Bob Spearman's Cedar Creek Ranch near Caldwell May 28. It is the home of Bob and Pat Spearman.

One of Bob Spearman's Cedar Creek Ranch Santa Gertrudis heifers stands proudly in front of the large barn which will be focal point of the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis Association's Field Day May 28 near Caldwell.

"The 'Gert' cows produce outstanding calves when crossed with bulls of other breeds, and 'Gert' bulls produce long-bodied, light-weight calves at birth that cause no calving problems, but grow out rapidly and weigh a lot when they are cashed in," Spearman said.

Spearman considers himself to be more lucky than smart. For instance, during the early 1960's, he and a friend each put up about all the capital they could raise, $100 each, and went into the home building business. Now they are the two largest construction men in the Bryan-College Station area.

Luck, along with good trading ability, has enabled Spearman to buy, develop, trade and sell land in this Central Texas area to a point where he now raises Santa Gertrudis on just under 1,000 acres of land in two nearby places between Caldwell and Bryan. The land is well cleared and soddied to prolific grasses. Spearman has earned the nickname "Shredder" with his close associates because of the vengeance with which he shears any weeds which crop up in his pastures.

"Luck," Spearman says also contributed to his becoming involved with Santa Gertrudis. He was running some mottled-faced commercial cows with different breeds of bulls, including Santa Gertrudis, and noticed that the "Gert" bulls produced small, wiry calves that caused no calving problems.

The cattle population in Texas outnumbered the human population by several million and ranks as the state's leading dollar producing crop.

Bob Spearman is shown with some of the 26 Santa Gertrudis bulls which have just completed a Texas A&M University extension service supervised gain test on Cedar Creek Ranch on a high roughage ration to which the two top bulls averaged 3.2 pounds gain per day for 140 days, with overall cost of gain being 44¢ per pound.

ever with 700-800 pound first-calf heifers, but the calves weighed more at weaning. That led to his going straight Santa Gertrudis, a program that has taken him to strong Tomado breeding with infusion of a Briggs bull and a La Paloma bull with strong Winrock Farms breeding.

He actually started in the Santa Gertrudis business in 1970 because a brother of his had success with "Gerts" in New Mexico in an arid area. "Gerts" in New Mexico in an arid area will test any breed of cattle. He has

Santa Gertrudis heifers at different places, but his main initial acquisition was purchase of the D. L. Johnson Santa Gertrudis herd No. 499 at Dallas.

Success of Spearman's breeding program is demonstrated by the fact that when SGBI classifiers inspected his new heifer crop in April, they put the "S" brand on 70 of the 72 heifers, and "S-B" on only two. Some Santa Gertrudis breeders consider 66-70 percent "S's" to be good, Spearman said.

Luck, and development of one of the top herds of the breed, has enabled Spearman to sell cattle all over the world. In 1974 he sold 84 cows with $1,100 per pair to buyers from South Africa and shipped them by air from Houston. He has sold other cattle to buyers in Mexico. But Spearman considers his most important customers to be commercial cattlemen, many of whom have become repeat customers for his bulls.

"Luck" for Spearman, as for most people, is a carefully engineered result of planning. For him, too, it's been acceptance of good advice from such people as the Soil Conservation Service, Extension specialists, and others who specialize in how to properly utilize land.

"Luck" Spearman accepts. "Smart" he leaves to his son Mark, who is a graduate student and instructor in physics at Iowa State University, and his daughter, Ginny, who works with the Texas A&M Univ. Extension Service at College Station.

R. P. Marshall and Bobby Shelton, both of King Ranch, Kingsville, are shown discussing the successful Winrock Farms Santa Gertrudis Sale May 14 at Morrilton, Ark. Forty lots averaged $3,400. King Ranch purchased this bull for $20,000 for their Buck and Doe Farms in Pennsylvania.

This annual event features range conditioned, classified Santa Gertrudis, selling in large numbers. The sale is designed to make available to the commercial cowman, as well as the new purebred breeder, locally raised, pasture conditioned cattle.

Twenty herd sires, and range bulls, and two hundred head of females will sell. Females will consist of bred cows, cows with calves and bred back, and open heifers.

All cattle sell as guaranteed breeders. Females two years old or older will either have a calf at side or be safe in calf. Dan Wendt, sale chairman, points out that the Santa Gertrudis cow is an excellent mother cow, with outstanding milking ease and milking ability, while Santa Gertrudis bulls are noted for their ability to increase weaning weights through fast growing calves.

Western Heritage

Western Heritage Sale, and the auction will feature a select offering of each of the three aspects. Twenty-three of the top Santa Gertrudis breeders have been invited to consign their best cattle for the auction. Twenty of the most widely known and respected Quarter Horse breeders will assemble a dazzling selection of stock, and twenty-three of America's very best Western artists will consign their works of art and sculpture in various mediums.

The Western Heritage Sale will be held in the internationally-known Shamrock Hilton Hotel in Houston. When the Western Heritage Sale comes to the Shamrock in August with its fabulous array of cattle, horses, and art all together in the ballroom, it should be another first for a hotel that has been in the forefront of so many other happenings.

On the evening of the Western Heritage Sale, guests will be ushered in amidst the lights and fanfare to enjoy cocktails and dinner. During the auction former Governor John Connally and Joe Marchman, a prominent Santa Gertrudis breeder from Plano, Texas, will head up the cattle sale. Representing the Quarter Horse breeders will be Rex Caudle of Denton and Louis Pearce of Houston and Bill Burford of the Texas Art Gallery will present the Western art pieces.

The glamour, the glitter and the spectacle will be there. The celebrities will come. And right in the middle of all it will be the most splendid selection of cattle, horses and art ever assembled and offered for sale in one place at one time. All in all, the Western Heritage Sale of 1977 is shaping up to be another "Whe else but Texas" extravaganza of the year.

NEWS about LIMOUSIN

Around The Limo Loop

By: KEN HOLLOWAY & BRUCE BROOKS

Limousin are on the move. . . just take a look at the many sale reports from the past six weeks. Yackley Ranch's sale where 84 percentage bulls (7 two year olds and 77 yearlings) averaged $1012 is a good example of acceptance of the popular Limousin percentage bulls. The Derochie-Coyote Hills Ranch was equally successful where 25 fullblood bulls averaged $8194 and 44 percentage bulls averaged $850 going to 42 buyers from ten states. "Continuance of Excellence" Sale featured an outstanding set of weaned fullblood calves that were readily received, averaging $9400 on 27 bull calves and over $9000 on 12 heifer calves. Auction sales with action and wide acceptance by cattlemen new to the Limousin business tend to renew one's confidence in Limousin cattle.

The Texas Limousin Assn. will again sponsor Junior heifer shows at Dallas and Fort Worth and possibly San Antonio. All heifers must be 37% or more Limousin, solid red, born January 1, 1976 or later and conform to all other rules of these particular livestock shows. For more information contact Bob Brown, Quanah, Texas. 817-889-4486.

The TLA will also sponsor a Limousin bull sale in the early spring of 1978. These bulls must be born between September 1, 1976 and February 1, 1977, to be eligible for this sale. These bulls should be at least 75% Limousin and will be fed at one location, as near to the sale site as we can find. There will be a $50 entry fee charge that is due and payable at the time you commit your entry to the sale, with another $50 to be paid at the time of delivery. Minimum adjusted weaning weight of 475 lbs. and all bulls will be screened by a committee at the time of delivery. There is no color restriction. Ray Sims, Baird, Texas 79504, is chairman of the bull sale, so drop him a line or give him a call and tell him how many bulls you want to put in the sale. There is a limit of no more than five head per breeder.

Hope to see you around the "Limo Loop" at the many upcoming events.

RIVERBEND RANCH QATAR HILLS RANCH
London, Tx. Marble Falls, Tx.

Dear Friends:
We are proud to announce the renaming of our Llano River Ranch, London, Tx., to Riverbend Ranch. We are doing this in honor of the purchase of Bud McBride's Riverbend Farms purebred Limousin herd. We think this is one of the finest cow herds anywhere and it includes, to name a few, such great cows as Gloria, the dam of Riverbend Eclat and Riverbend Gloria, the 1976 Champ. Purebred Female at the Nat'l Western. Also such great females as Hamelia, dam of the Griffin Ranch herd sire and Harmonica, who now has a Fantaron heifer calf. The list goes on. . . .
These tremendous cows have proven themselves in the Riverbend herd and will join other superior cows at Rio Vista Genetics, San Antonio, Tx. In a short time the transplants out of these great cows will be for sale, and we invite your inquiry for further information regarding the purchase of what we know will be an unsurpassed group of calves.

Sincerely,

Darrell & Nell Wiggins
Wiggins Ranch Co.

Pfluger Puts Texas Limousin

Association In The "Black"

Pflugerville, Texas—Willard Pfluger is a very busy man—just the kind always highly in demand by organizations which need responsible and active leadership because they devote as much of their energies to association business as to their own. That's one of the reasons Pfluger is now serving his second term as president of the Texas Limousin Assn.

Another good reason is that he has been successful at the helm of the Association—it's now in the "black" due largely to Pfluger's efforts. "Any organization or association can't be very active if it's broke or in the red," Pfluger says. So when he was elected president, one of his first acts was to get out letters "pretty stiffly" worded to members whose dues were delinquent. "Some of them got kinda mad, but we got a lot of money in, and the association now has money in the bank—and a roster of members who are interested and active," he adds.

"Having money in the bank isn't easy when you have a year like the one just past, when thank God, every major steer show in Texas and many of the county and regional shows were won by Limousin cross steers."

and the association had to cough-up more than $1,000 in added prize monies to the exhibitors," Pfluger said. Limousin cross steers took grand championships at the Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio and Houston shows last season.

"We think winning the shows was highly worthwhile in publicity received by the Limousin breed and we want Limousins to continue their winning ways," he added. In addition to heading up TLA, Pfluger keeps busy at his feed and grain businesses in four Central Texas towns, and gasoline distributorship, in addition to operating his Limousin ranch with a herd of 200 halfblood to purebred Limousin cows and heifers and two fullblood bulls.

Of the Limousin breed in general, Pfluger says he's glad that prices of Limousin cattle were never artificially inflated to the extent that some other so called "Exotic" breeds were, and hence didn't suffer such a drastic price fall.

"I'll guarantee you that when Limousin people have a sale whether it's a consignment sale or production sale, when the sale ring gate swings behind an animal, it's sold," he said.

Mow 100 acres a day!

You can with this new Rowse "Quick-Attach" Trailing Double Mower...two 9' cutter bars mow down 18 feet every swath—10.9 acres every hour (at 5 mph). (At 8 mph tractor speed, you can cut nearly 17 1/2 acres per hour.) With the quick-attach feature, unhitch and hook up to rake or baler in minutes, too!

Rowse Quick-Attach Mower features:

- Tough, balanced-head drive. No pitmans—operates smoother with fewer maintenance problems.
- 100% cutting action. Sickles operate at 2,000 strokes per minute; knife sections don't over-ride guards so are always exposed to standing hay.
- Easy switch to transport position. Pulls easily behind your pickup, too.
- Available with 7' cutter bars. Rowse mounted double mowers available in 7' and 9' cutter bar lengths, too.

Rowse equipment makes hay—more profitable! For information on Rowse mowers and hydraulic rakes, write:

4th Windy Ryon Memorial Roping Set June 4 & 5

The 4th annual Windy Ryon Memorial Roping to benefit the American Heart Association will be held June 4 and 5 at new facilities located at the intersection of Loop 820 and Highway 287, just north of Fort Worth.

In the past, this memorial roping has raised more than $30,000 for the American Heart Association.

On Saturday, June 4, matched roping will pit Ernie Taylor, World's champion calf roper in 1973, and fourth in world standings in 1971 who has made many trips to the National finals, against Phil Lyne, World champion calf roper in 1971 and 1972 and all around champion cowboy in those two years in a 10-cut match with a winner-take-all prize of $2,500. This is the fourth year that Taylor has participated in the matched roping, having beaten Ronnie Sewall two out of the first three matches.

At 8 a.m. Sunday, June 5, and open-to-the-world ladies barrel race will begin with all racers competing in one go-round, with the top 15 barrel racers to get a second run in the finals during the steer roping that afternoon. The winner will receive a trophy saddle.

Fifty ropers are to compete in the two-cut roping which has a $200 entry fee, with the gate receipts to go to the heart association. Calf ropers include Tom Ferguson, 1974 world's champion, Taylor, Lyne, Junior Garrison, Ronnie Sewall, Barry Burk, Sonny Davis, Olin Young, Arnold Felts, Willard Moody, Tooter Waltes, Ronnie Williams, Edd Workman and Terry Davidson. Last year's winner, Tom Ferguson won the $1,900 prize money, a trophy saddle and use of a horse trailer for a year.

The steer roping will have 46 of the world's best steer ropers who will rope, trip and tie three steers each, with the 12 fastest on three to each tie a fourth steer for the championship. In 1973 Charles Good won earning $2,500 plus the trophy saddle.

Admission to the ropings will be $5 for adults and $1 for children under 12. Tickets may be purchased at the gate or in advance from Amusement Ticket Service, Rodeway Inn, 111 W. Lancaster, Fort Worth, Texas, phone 817/896-0777.

cases when the oil was gone they slid back into rock hard poverty again. This may well be the case with some of the New Rich in the oil producing countries, they'll live it up while it lasts, and then move back to their tents in the desert. Some of the more enlightened leaders in those countries see this possibility and are trying to use the oil money to establish industry and water supplies, etc., but the Big Problem seems to be that the natives don't have the desire for work. Imported labor is doing most of the work and regardless of how much industry is developed, it takes people to run it and at this writing they seem as illetric to toil as a third or fourth generation Welfareite in the U.S.

The other day Venezuela was a story out of Colombia that some coffee farmers were burning some coffee trees to protest the fact their Govmint was taxing their coffee exports about 70% or so, and they wanted a bigger slice of the pie in spite of the fact they money they couldn't spend and inflation was wreckin' the Colombian economy as buyers with too much money bid things out of sight.

The other day Venezuela proposed a bond offer in this country of a hundred million dollars or more and not too long ago the country sold a similar bond issue in Europe. Not long ago Venezuela would have been considered a bad bet in almost any kind of financial deal, except Furrin Ade, but those European bonds were rated AAA by both Moody's and Standard & Poors, and this new issue will probably be rated tops, too.

Much the same sort of thing is takin' place at various other points around the globe as we run into problems of shortages of bauxite, nickel, chrome and other stuff we find essential to maintain our standard of livin' as high as it is.

Once upon a time these pore folks in furrin lands used to come to this country, hat in hand, for Furrin Ade hand-outs of cash or commodities, but now they are takin' it away from us with all the dexterity of highjackers.

Unfortunately we have a great many people in Congress & Public Life who seem to blame high prices on Big Business in this country. It would appear about time for these feather-brained experts to take a new look at The Situation and discover the root cause of our shortages and inflation are in many cases the doing of those ragamuffins we used to give our money to. The diffrents now is, they are takin' it.

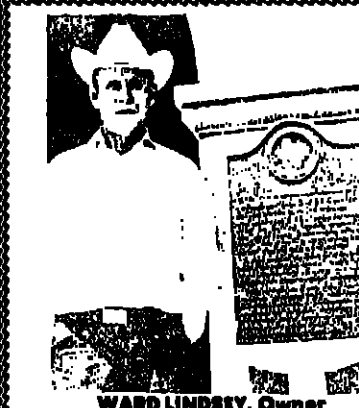

Ever thins.

The Edditor.
P.S. Uncle Dunk says that after less than four months in office Jimmy Carter is still quite a puzzle to one & all, but particularly to the Liberals who figured they had a man in the White House they could call their very own. Dunk says the best recent example of this was Sen. McGovern's bitter diatribe to the Americans for Democratic Action when he howled, he was beginnin' to wonder who won the last Election. Carter has shown real talent at pullin' the fangs of Liberal activists by puttin' 'em to work at second or third level Burocratic jobs. That gits 'em out of the way. It was amusin' to hear the Auto Workers Woodcock tear into Carter's plans to tax big cars, but Carter has him under control. He'll soon be sent to China to represent the Govmint, and if that ain't about as far away as you can send a dissenter, we can't off hand think of where else. Remember what Bert Lance told a group of business men durin' the Campaign? He allowed as how "Carter campaigns Liberal, but he's a Governin' Conservative." Which may explain a lot of things. — Thassell Brothers

Brangus.
The Ideal Mother
In Any Country.

Look at the Brangus cow. She combines the outstanding maternal traits of both the Brahman and Angus to produce a quality calf with uniformity and rapid growth to weaning. She can do all of this predictably because Brangus are not top-crossed. Brangus are derived from registered Brahman and Angus cattle.

The Brangus cow is ADAPTABLE. Because Brangus will grow all the hair they need in winter, Brangus cows survived the 1973 New Mexico blizzards. And they survived with more of their calves than the Herefords running with them. Yet Brangus maintain the summer heat tolerance of their Brahman forebears. Under friendlier conditions, Brangus outperform other breeds.

Take a good look at the advantages that come from carefully combining the hardiness of Brahman with the efficiency and carcass quality of Angus. Look at a Brangus cow...She's the ideal mother...In any country.

Jerry Baker: "With Brangus, Stockade Ranch Is A Self-Sustaining Operation"

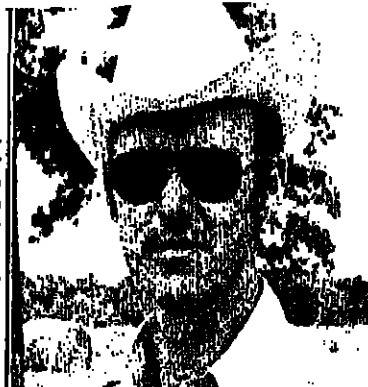

Paige, Texas — Jerry and Rebecca Baker, and their daughters Holly, 13, and Heidi, 9, are working cattle people who have found that with the top kind of Brangus cattle, a cattle ranch can be a self-sustaining venture without outside income, even through some of the leanest years in the cattle business.

"We have tried to build one of the Brangus breed's top herds, and the show record of our cattle, plus their acceptance by other registered breeders and commercial cattlemen, makes us believe we have succeeded," Baker says.

"In the nine years we have been in the Brangus business here, we've been able to pay all costs of the cattle operations and our living expenses with our bull sales, and have been able to keep up the mortgage payments on the place with sale of replacement heifers," he added.

The show record is illustrated in part by recent show results: I. O. Janca of Elgin showed a heifer from the Baker's Stockade Ranch to the championship of the Brangus female show at the Texas State Fair in Dallas; Jeff Turner, Thorndale, had a winner at the International show in Houston; and Bryan Smith, Giddings, had the heifer champion at the Giddings show; and Lisa Wilson had a heifer that was champion.

at the Nacogdoches county fair, all with heifers purchased from Stockade.

Baker, himself, was once a power to be reckoned with at Brangus shows, but recently has just about "quit" showing, because he doesn't like to compete against people who have purchased their show cattle from him. "This way, show prospect buyers don't have to think that I hold back my best prospects to show myself," he reasons.

However, Baker does have one heifer, a granddaughter of the famous J. W. Hastings Brangus sire, "Tom Tom," that he's going to take to the International Brangus Futurity in Fredericksburg June 3.

An example of acceptance of the Stockade Brangus by other registered Brangus breeders was delivery last week of 36 heifers purchased by Granada Land & Cattle Co., Bryan, one of the largest Brangus breeders in the nation.

Acceptance of Stockade Brangus by fellow Brangus breeders is also shown by the fact that the "Top of the Crop" (CONT. ON PAGE 19B)

We extend a big Texas-sized welcome to Sandy Sulder, the new editor of the Brangus Journal. She attended her first Brangus function at a "Show-Me" Sale in Missouri this past weekend, and everyone enjoyed getting acquainted.

MAINE-ANJOU NEWS

Texas Maine-Anjou Field Day,

Sale Set June 25 At New Braunfels

New Braunfels — Texas Maine-Anjou Association will hold a field day and consignment sale at N. Hwy. 18 miles north of San Antonio on Interstate 85 beginning at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, June 25.

Calvin Fryar, Brownwood, president of Texas Maine-Anjou Assn., said an interesting program is being arranged for the field day on synchronization and breeding by artificial insemination, and on herd bull selection.

The sale will feature 50 lots consisting of 10 fullblood Maine-Anjous and 40 lots of purebred and seven-eighths Maine-Anjou breeding cattle, plus 20 three-quarter and seven-eighths Maine-Anjou bulls from the top animals on the current bull test at Howard Payne University's bull test center at Brownwood. That test will be concluded June 17 and complete data will be available on all this test bulls.

"The Maine-Anjou bulls from the Howard Payne test have proven highly popular with commercial cattle breeders, particularly from South Texas, so we believe it's appropriate to take the bulls to where the strongest market has developed," Fryar said.

"Maine-Anjou percentage bulls have proven highly popular with commercial cattle producers, because of the added weight they put on calves at weaning time," Fryar said.

Cattle for the sale, which is the largest offering of high percentage and fullblood Maine-Anjous ever made in Texas, are being consigned by leading breeders over the U. S. and in Canada, Fryar said.

For this field day, there will be a large display of fullblood and high percentage cattle in addition to the sale cattle.

Wright Ranch, Moore, Mont., consigned the calves to Group 21 in November 1976. Fed 124 days, feedlot gain was 4.28 pounds ADG with a cost per 100 pounds of gain of $36.80, which was $6.00 to $6.00 less than average cost of gain at the feedlot. When sold in March 1977, the average weight to these Maine-Anjou steers and heifers was 1,355 pounds. Information available on 28 head showed 23 graded choice and three good, with 18 receiving a yield grade score of three and eight receiving two's.

Group 21 feeds about 30,000 head each year. Kirk said feedlots are always looking for animals to convert corn to beef quickly and efficiently, and these Maine-Anjou crossbreds were some of the best they've seen for gain and conversion.

"Price rises for fed and feeder cattle should continue to be rather healthy through the second quarter of the year and into the early part of the third quarter," believes Uvacek. "However, there will be some weakening of prices into the fall and winter."

The specialist expects fed cattle prices to top out in July but to generally remain strong throughout the summer months.

He also points out that such strong last Monday. Sows firm. U.S. 1-3 190-240 lbs. 41.75-42.50. U.S. 2-3 185-270 lbs. 41.00-41.75. Sows U.S. 1-3 800-400 lbs. 33.00-35.00, few 1-2 270-330 lbs. 35.00-36.00, 400-600 lbs. 31.00-33.00, few 38.25.

fed cattle prices this spring could lead to increased feedlot placements and an oversupply of fed cattle by the end of the year.

"Total cattle slaughter was down 4 percent during the first three months of this year, even though fed cattle marketings were up," notes the Texas A.M. University System specialist.

"This means considerably less cows and nonfeds are being slaughtered than a year ago."

"Feedlots intend to market about six million head during the second quarter—April through June," notes Uvacek. "Since there is some indication that some cattle may have been marketed early, second quarter fed cattle marketings may even be lower than originally anticipated. Even the original estimate, though higher, would still produce only about 1 percent more fed beef than a year ago."

With further seasonal reductions expected in the slaughter of nonfed cattle and cows, beef production during this quarter could easily run 3 to 5 per cent below the same period a year ago," points out the specialist.

"Fed cattle marketings during the third calendar quarter should total 5.8 to 5.9 million head. This, coupled with lower pork and nonfed beef production, could sharply reduce total red meat supplies by the third quarter to levels below a year ago."

the Bakers look to it for heating and cooking fuel if the energy crisis gets close. When they recently made additions to both ends of the line home Dr.
Webb had built on the place, they put a fireplace in every room.

his fellow Brangus breeders are doing,

Granada Announces Special "Angus With Brangus" Cow Sale

The sale offering includes 350 carefully selected registered Angus cows which have been used in Granada's Brangus upgrading program. All cows are registered with the American Angus Association and are enrolled in the Brangus program. All have purchased Brangus calves at side by the breed's leading 3/4 Brangus bulls or will drop purebred Brangus calves. Thus, buyers have the option of purchasing registered Angus, registered Angus enrolled in Brangus program, with purebred Brangus calves, or for top commercial cattle.

Featured in the offering are 125 three-in-one packages, with cows bred back to 3/4 bulls; 125 pairs; and 100 cows bred to 3/4 Brangus bulls. About 40 pair will be sold as single lots; the remaining will sell in groups of three to five. Buyers will receive three ampules or straw of semen from leading 3/4 Brangus bulls for every cow they purchase.

As a special feature of the sale,
buyers of cows with purebred Brangus heifers at side will receive semen and breeding certificates from the best known, proven bulls in the Brangus breed.
For each heifer-pair purchased, the buyer receives one ampule of semen from any two of these Brangus bulls - Rocky Joe 387, Dean's Seminole, General, and WSR Chief "848." One breeding certificate will be given with each two ampules of semen. In addition, a limited amount of semen from the great Rocky Joe 850 and Titan will be given for select purchases.

Buyers can benefit from Granada's bull battery, considered one of the strongest in the history of the Brangus breed. Rocky Joe 387
